BEFORE YOU START

Ready to get started? To begin working towards the AA-DTA degree, you simply need to apply and be accepted to CBC. You can apply online at www.columbiabasin.edu.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

At CBC, the study of World Languages can serve as the foundation for many careers. Whether you are a complete beginner, have some experience, or already fluent, we have a class for you! The Department of World Languages at CBC currently offers programs in French, Japanese and Spanish. We are committed to providing language and cultural instruction to enhance your studies, travel experiences, and professional growth. Our World Languages Department believes that students with an international understanding of culture, coupled with competency in a second language, will be better equipped to meet the professional challenges of the 21st century. We accomplish this by using a communicative approach, through the use of media and technology, strategic student placement and textbook selections.

OUT OF CLASS TO DO'S

- Contact your instructors and/or the CBC Career Services Center to find an internship, observation/shadowing experience, or a job in a field related to Japanese/world languages.
- Research transfer schools of interest with your Completion Coach.
- Visit the Academic Success Center for quiet study space, small group study, supplemental instruction and tutoring assistance.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Among current employer outlook trends in the United States, individuals with bilingual skills will have a clear advantage in an increasingly competitive labor market. Language skills are valuable in a variety of fields and can help you find jobs such as: advertising, law, childcare and senior care provider, counseling, creative writing, customer service, customs & immigration, education, interpretation in healthcare and legal professions, law enforcement, Peace Corps and aid agencies, politics, research, social work, translation services, travel & tourism, and more!
