BEFORE YOU START

Ready to get started? To begin working towards the AA-DTA degree, you simply need to apply and be accepted to CBC. You can apply online at www.columbiabasin.edu.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

History at Columbia Basin College (CBC) exposes you to the world's most epic moments, movements and stories. By studying history, you will develop skills that will help you succeed, no matter what career path you choose. Just a few things you will gain through History at CBC:

- Powerful skills of mindfulness and communication that will benefit all potential careers
- Confidence in tackling complex and complicated issues of life
- The most epic stories of humanity's successes, failures and changes
- Ability to see what is most important and the training to find answers

As a History student, you learn and practice good habits of thinking through analysis of facts, ideas, data and documents. You also create and communicate your own, independent interpretations of these things, using data to back up your conclusions.

OUT OF CLASS TO DO'S

- Contact your instructors and/or the CBC Career Services Center to find an internship, observation/shadowing experience or a job in the field related to history.
- Research transfer schools of interest with your Completion Coach.
- Visit the Academic Success Center for quiet study space, small group study, supplemental instruction and tutoring assistance.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

By looking to the past, you'll gain worldly knowledge in addition to skills that can benefit you across all careers, giving you the flexibility to choose from many pursuits.

While teaching is a typical profession that you may associate with history, there are many more opportunities for you, such as:

- Attorneys and paralegals
- Business owners
- Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and law enforcement officers
- Government workers and diplomats
- Politicians or political staffers
- Museum directors, curators and archivists
- Publicists or public relations specialists
- Market research analysts
