BEFORE YOU START

Ready to get started? To begin working towards the AA-DTA degree, you simply need to apply and be accepted to CBC. You can apply online at www.columbiabasin.edu.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The Pre-Physical Therapy emphasis at CBC is designed for students who want to become physical therapists. The Doctorate of Physical Therapy (DPT) degree, or its equivalent, must be earned to become a physical therapist. While the requirements below meet standards for many transfer schools and physical therapy programs, students wishing to earn the DPT degree must determine their schools of interest and complete the required coursework for those programs.

OUT OF CLASS TO DO'S

- Begin researching transfer and physical therapy schools of interest early to be certain you meet their prerequisite course requirements and admission deadlines.
- Consider working with the CBC Career Services Center to find an internship, observation/shadowing experience, or a job in the physical therapy field.
- Visit the Academic Success Center for quiet study space, small group study, supplemental instruction and tutoring assistance.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

The primary objective of physical therapy is to promote human health and function by assessing and treating disabilities and promoting wellness to individuals of all ages. The physical therapist conducts physical evaluations to determine the patient's potential for rehabilitation and life style changes, and also educates the patient and family. Physical therapists treat patients recovering from injury, surgery or disease using means such as exercise, performance of functional mobility activities, manual techniques, and physical agents. They teach patients how to remain healthy, prevent injury, and stay physically active.

Physical therapists work in a variety of environments including:

- Elementary and high schools
- Sports clinics
- Veterans rehabilitations centers
- Hospitals
- Home health care
- Nursing homes
- And more!
