BEFORE YOU START

Ready to get started? To begin working towards the AA-DTA degree, you simply need to apply and be accepted to CBC. You can apply online at www.columbiabasin.edu.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The mission of the English Department is to help prepare students to be "major" ready through effective use of written & verbal communication and to provide the necessary skills for students to be successful in their college career and beyond. By studying English, you will learn to read closely and think critically. You will gain an appreciation of literature through exposure to a broad range of ideas and learning styles that will help you learn about yourself as well as the world around you. This degree can prepare you for further study in a diverse range of professional fields, such as teaching, journalism, law, publishing, and the fine arts.

OUT OF CLASS TO DO'S

- Contact your instructors and/or the CBC Career Services Center to find an internship, observation/shadowing experience, or a job in a field related to English.
- Research transfer schools of interest with your Completion Coach.
- Visit the Academic Success Center for quiet study space, small group study, supplemental instruction and tutoring assistance.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Courses taught in English and Literature can serve as a foundation for many degrees and/or careers, such as copywriter, technical writer, grant writer, content writer, reporter, public relations specialist, social media specialist, content marketer, lawyer, government worker, public interest advocate, consultant and educator.
