BEFORE YOU START

Ready to get started? To begin working towards the certificate, you simply need to apply and be accepted to CBC. You can apply online at www.columbiabasin.edu.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The Entrepreneurship and Innovation program at CBC provides support to individuals looking to build and launch their own business or capitalize on a great idea. Our program equips you to succeed through application rather than theory. This program has its own dedicated space for practical application including a computer lab, conference room, collaborative workspace, video recording room and a presentation stage. In addition to meeting successful guest speakers, this program will also match entrepreneurship students with mentors from the SCORE program. Students will have opportunities to attend local business gatherings, work in shared office and kitchen spaces and create in makerspace workshops for prototype development.

OUT OF CLASS TO DO'S

- Contact your instructors and/or the CBC Career Services Center to find an internship, observation/shadowing experience, or a job in the field of business administration.
- Visit the Academic Success Center for quiet study space, small group study, supplemental instruction and tutoring assistance

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Curriculum focused on skills development

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

At CBC, our business graduates enter a variety of disciplines in an even wider variety of industries. Graduates of the Entrepreneurship & Innovation Certificate typically go on to own their own business. Business owners operate their own companies and handle responsibilities such as creating business plans, arranging financing, hiring staff, reviewing sales, developing marketing strategies, overseeing daily activities and identifying business opportunities. Being a business owner can be a great career move if you are independent, self-motivated and possess excellent interpersonal skills.
